Retraction Note

Marital Compatibility and its Relationship to Marital Variables: A Sociological Study on Married Libyan Women in Tripoli

The Editor-in-Chief has retracted this article. Following publication, concerns were raised regarding the integrity of the references cited in the article. An investigation conducted by the editorial board confirmed that 7 citations in the reference list were fabricated. Additionally, it was determined that the manuscript involved the use of AI-generated content beyond what is permitted under the journal's AI usage policies.

The authors were informed of these findings and were given the opportunity to respond to the concerns. The authors, however, do not agree with the decision to retract. Based on the outcome of the investigation and in accordance with the journal's publishing ethics and integrity policies, the editorial board has decided to retract the article in order to maintain the integrity of the scientific record.

The online version of this article contains the full text of the retraction as approved by the Editor-in-Chief.
